

Mrs Morna Dukes

Morna

You've touched so many people
Throughout the passing years
Everyone that knew you
Will find it hard to hold back the tears

It's hard to explain the way you feel
Or to know the right thing to say
You'll always be in our hearts
Each and every day

You didn't want anyone to make a fuss
Because your heart was so warm and true
Every little thing came first
Before you would let it come back to you

This is from all the lives you've touched
We know it won't be the same
We know that you'll be sadly missed
And you'll no longer have any pain

Today was so hard for me
I had to say my last goodbye
I tried to make out I was strong
But I knew I'd breakdown and cry

I wish I came to see you
Long before I did today
Just to see you one more time
Before the angels took you away

You were a big part of my life
I'm sure you know how much I cared
We know that God is looking after you
I'll never forget the times we shared

For every star that shines so bright
Or every sky that's blue
You'll be sadly missed
Out thoughts would be of you
