

Susan McMaster nee Crosby

1951-2000

*All of us love you
All of us care
We still whisper your name
In our prayers
You are not just a memory
And part of the past
You are part of our lives
While our lives last.*

Susan, first daughter of Josephine and Robert Crosby, filled the dreams and expectations of any parents. Susan, with determination, set out on her life's path and succeeded. Her devoted sisters Ann and Cathy witnessed an untiring understanding and compassion for people around her, especially children who were in, and came from depressing circumstances. Susan fostered many a young child giving that young person the love and understanding that was denied them.

Susan's love and understanding for animals and children led to events that would show the fortitude that would serve her well in later times.

Susan's courage could not be weighed or measured; she withstood, fought and won many fights, lived her life and gave of herself unselfishly.

Susan still continued to be at the helm of the family's successful business, involved herself wholeheartedly in family celebrations and anniversaries.

At 4pm, 6th September 2000 she lost her battle, however she was not alone, and all those who meant so much to her were in attendance.

We celebrate her life, as she was, her personality and rejoice in her achievements. Susan will always be! She is! Susan has just changed address!
